

The Micheliano movement has the intention of bringing a renewal of human conscience into a disinterested love, in virtuosity, in the brotherhood and in the culture of man for man.

The movement wants narrow down the person to the intimate relationship with God, push it to live in coherence with its profound nature, be it men, be it women, to help to rediscover its tasks, its duties and its responsibilities towards of life.

The movement wants to point out that we all are guardians foster and not the owners of this planet and that we must share it, fraternally.

The name Micheliano derives from the archangel Michele, bright emblem of fidelity and devotion to God.

Renewal of the man is to indicate that work that every person should make inside of it for build itself into the light and achieve, so, the level divine.

This top part from conceive that each of us is a part of God and it is in the depth of our being, therefore, go towards him, depends only on our will.

For the movement matter what people can do positive inside themselves and to the community, so can build fraternally a world for all.

All that is placed in the site is the result of my thoughts and feelings in trying to understand, in my small, the first cause of all that on this world we call God. Linked to this it is added to the involvement of my sensitive, when it is touched by what happens in human situations of the world.

This my work goes to the free evaluation of the persons so that its distillate will be a stimulus to a happy and serene spiritual rebirth of the same persons.

The accession to the movement is free, gratis and not binding.

The possible application is only for those who feel bearers of values on which is based the movement and want fraternally share this things together, or, otherwise, you may participate externally as mere supporters.

For other explanations I'm available, in evening hours, to the number of mobile 346.9633820.

For callers from abroad please consider the Time Zone and please to speak in Italian language.

The founder:

Marinelli F. Giovanni